New DC again !

- Rohini Sindhuri visits Chamundi Hill before assuming office as Mysuru DC
- B. Sharat transferred without posting after serving for a month as DC

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (RK&DM)- A day after she was posted as Mysuru Deputy Commissioner (DC), Rohini Sindhuri Dasari, a Karnataka cadre IAS Officer of 2009 batch, took charge at the Deputy Commissioner's Office on Hunsur Road here this morning.

She replaces B. Sharat, who had assumed charge as Mysuru DC on Aug. 29, 2020. Now Sharat has been transferred without posting.

A native of Andhra Pradesh, Rohini is the second new DC for Mysuru in just over a month. Earlier, DC Abhiram G. Sankar, who was appointed in 2018, was transferred as Director of Administrative Training Institute (ATI), Mysuru, on Aug. 28, 2020.

Speaking to press persons after assuming charge this morning, Rohini Sindhuri said that she came to Mysuru at about 8.30 am today and drove straight to Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill and sought the blessings of the deity.

Later she visited Tripura Sundariamma Temple at Uttanahalli on the outskirts of the city and offered prayers to the deity.

Noting that she was not new to Mysuru as she had undergone training at the ATI on Lalitha Mahal Road here in her early days of her career, Rohini said that there were two immediate challenges before her — one is tackling COVID-19 that is spreading fast in Mysuru district and the second is conduct of Dasara amid COVID crisis, which is very much round the corner.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Human beings can come to know the past, present and future by annihilating the mind through spiritual practices. The mind must be annihilated because it is a relative truth, which prevents human beings from knowing the absolute truth. Where there is action, there is motion. Time is the mental measurement of dynamism in action. Where there is no action, there is neither mind nor time. If you are unconscious, then you will not be aware of the lapse of those three hours. Action and mind are relative truths and consequently, time is also a relative truth. Time is dependent on space and person and space and form are dependent on time. It is incorrect to say that time is eternity without end and without break or limit. Time cannot exist without space and person. Human beings derive or try to derive pleasure from objects, great and small, but they cannot get eternal Bliss from a relative truth. Therefore sages devote themselves to the entity free from bondage of time. One has to practise sadhana to establish oneself in the entity that is free from bondage of time.

Half a million sharks may be killed for COVID vaccine

New York: In the bid to find a Covid-19 vaccine wildlife experts claim half a million sharks could be slaughtered for the much anticipated jab.

Squalene, a natural oil made in the liver of sharks, is used medicine and is also used as an adjuvant to increase the effectiveness of a vaccine. It is also being used in trial vaccines for the coronavirus.

If a drug passes that contains squalene and goes into production across the world conservationist group Shark Allies believe around 250,000 sharks will need to be slaughtered to provide one dose for each person. That figure doubles and becomes more dire if people need two shots instead of one to fully vaccinate against COVID-19.

Stefanie Brendl, founder and executive director of Shark Allies, said: "Harvesting something from a wild animal is never going to be sustainable, especially if it's a top predator that doesn't reproduce in huge numbers." The group has set up an online petition named 'Stop Using Sharks in COVID-19 Vaccine - Use EXISTING Sustainable Options'.

Rail workers suspended after 'man cave' found under railway

New York: Three rail employees were suspended after being accused of of creating a "man cave" underneath New York's Grand Central Station.

The three railroad workers had found the storage room under Track 114 and filled it with a television, a fridge, a microwave and a futon sofa.

Investigators said it appears the employees - a wireman, a carpenter foreman and an electrical foreman - used the secret break room when they were supposed to be working.

The Metro-North Railroad workers have now been suspended without pay and will face disciplinary hearings.

When will Mini Vidhana Soudha elevator start working?

Sir,

I had written about this problem earlier also. Due to lethargic attitude of the authorities concerned, still the elevator in the Mini Vidhana Soudha (Taluk Office) is not in working condition since more than a year.

Mini Vidhana Soudha is a big and beautiful Government building which mainly houses Taluk Office and Sub-Registrar's office. The Taluk Office has Cellar, Ground, First and Second Floor.

As I mentioned there is an elevator in addition to steps to go to different floors. To go to ground floor, there are about 20 steps. After going there, people who wish to go to first floor have to climb another 30 steps.

Then the Survey Department is on the second floor. To reach it, one has to climb another 30 steps. So from ground level to reach second floor, people have to climb about 80 steps! Patrons who are aged find it very difficult to climb these steps.

I really don't understand why an elevator is there in first place and why is it not maintained to work continuously. There are highly responsible Officers working in Mini Vidhana Soudha and still this issue is not resolved.

We can only hope that, at least now the authorities concerned look into this issue and arrange to repair the elevator at the earliest.

- Rs. 100 crore set aside for project
- Mahatma Gandhi had visited this village in 1927, 1932

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (SSV)- Cleaning of the premises of historic Khadi Gramodyog Mandali at Badanavalu village in Nanjangud taluk of Mysuru district and garlanding Gandhiji's bust marked World Tourism Day on Sept. 27.

and started manufacturing Khadi products.

With the Khadi Centre in shambles, noted theatre personality Prasanna and a group of volunteers stayed in the village and rebuilt the sheds besides holding meetings, workshops, street performances and visual arts. Padayatras were held from various parts of the State and culminated at Badanavalu for National Convention for Sustainable Living.

Artistes, activists and leaders of various people's movement had camped with Prasanna and joined hands in temporarily resurrecting the centre. Noted Bollywood actor, late Irrfan Khan had visited the Centre to extend support to the cause of Prasanna.

Presently, 50-60 employees are working in this Khadi Centre, according to Tourism Department Deputy Director.

Cabinet rejig: CM to leave for Delhi?

Yediyurappa

Bengaluru, Sept. 29 (SSV)- With pressure from Legislators, Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa is leaving for Delhi in next two to three days to seek the nod for much-awaited Cabinet expansion or reshuffle.

The CM, while talking to media persons here yesterday, said that he will be going to Delhi to take permission from party High Command for the Cabinet reshuffle. He had ruled out any confusion or delay in the process and said it will be done as early as possible.

According to sources, pressure was mounting on the CM for the early Cabinet rejig especially from those who quit Congress and Janata Dal (Secular), and had joined BJP to become the Ministers.

MLCs A.H. Vishwanath, M.T.B. Nagaraj (the duo lost in by-polls), R. Shankar (who did not contest) and C.P. Yogeshwar were exerting pressure for their entry into the Council of Ministers.

Besides, senior original BJP leaders, Umesh Katti and Basangoudapatil Yatnal, two vocal critics of the CM, Haaladi Srinivasamurthy, Arvind Limbavali (a man behind Operation Kamala) and others are patiently waiting for their turn to become the Ministers. Caught between these two sets of Legislators, Yediyurappa was forced to go for either Cabinet expansion or reshuffle before the first week of next month.

Sources said the option before the CM was to ask the existing Ministers C.T. Ravi, Shashikala Jolle, Prabhu Chavan and C.C. Patil to tender resignation to accommodate another set of Legislators. Ravi, after being promoted as BJP National General Secretary, has volunteered to give up the Minister's post. Jolle may be replaced by Katti who is waiting for over one year to become a Minister. With Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) polls due in next four to five months, the party is toying with the idea of inducting Limbavali into the Cabinet. But, Bengaluru has already three Ministers — Revenue Minister R. Ashok, Housing Minister V. Somanna and Higher Education Minister Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan — and having one more Minister from the city may anger a few districts that have no representation at all.

To meet Nadda?

Since Prime Minister Narendra Modi has already given the consent for the Cabinet expansion or reshuffle, now the ball is in BJP National President J.P. Nadda's court. Yediyurappa had met him last week and another round of talks is likely to be held during the coming visit.

The nod of Union Home Minister Amit Shah is required to check any rebellion within the party. If everything goes well, the much-anticipated Cabinet reshuffle or expansion may take place in first week of next month.

Congress leaders appeal
Governor to reject Farm Bills

Bengaluru, Sept. 29- Even as the Karnataka Bandh called by farmer, labour and other associations in protest against the amendments to Land Reforms, APMC and Labour Acts on Monday drew mixed response across the State, the Opposition Congress which had backed the Bandh, submitted a memorandum to Governor Vajubhai R. Vala at Raj Bhavan here yesterday urging him to reject Farm Bills and the amended Acts, which it (Congress) said were anti-farmer and anti-people.

Later speaking to press persons, KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar said that the Congress has submitted two petitions to the Governor — one against the Farm Bills introduced by the Centre and the other against the recent amendments made by the State Government to Land Reforms, APMC and Labour Acts.

The Governor should not sign the amendments and reject them outrightly as they were anti-farmer and anti-people, he said and warned that the Congress will launch a Statewide agitation if the Government does not repeal the amendments, which is being widely opposed across the State.

Signature Campaign

Shivakumar further said that the Congress will launch a signature campaign against the amendments from Oct. 10 to 30, during which the President of India will be appealed to reject the Centre's Farm Bills. The Congress, as the Opposition party, will launch a big movement against the Bills and amendments in the coming days if they were not withdrawn, he added.

Opposition leader Siddharamaiah urged the BJP Government to dissolve the Assembly and go for fresh Assembly elections in the State. Maintaining that the BJP had not included the amendments in its election manifesto, Siddharamaiah said that Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa should seek dissolution of the Assembly and go for elections, seeking a fresh mandate by placing the amendments to Land Reforms, APMC and Labour Acts and the Centre's Farm Bills before the public, if he had so much confidence that the public were supportive of the BJP Government's moves.

High Court quashes FIR against former VC Prof. K.S. Rangappa

Prof. Rangappa

Mysuru, Sept. 29- In a big relief to former University of Mysore (UoM) and Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) Vice-Chancellor Prof. K.S. Rangappa, the Karnataka High Court on Wednesday last quashed the FIR registered against him in connection with the alleged irregularities that is said to have taken place when he was the KSOU VC.

Following a complaint accusing Prof. Rangappa and three others — Prof. M.G. Krishnan, also a former KSOU VC, retired KSOU Registrars P.S. Naik and B.S. Vishwanath — of having indulged in corruption while they were serving in KSOU, the Jayalakshmipuram Police had registered an FIR (Crime No.53/2019) against them on Nov. 29, 2019. Police, who investigated the complaint, found no truth in it and subsequently the Police filed a 'B Report.'

Questioning the 'B Report' filed by the Police, the complainants filed a protest petition in the High Court, which is pending. Meanwhile, the complainants registered another FIR on Nov. 29, 2019 by repeating the charges made in the first complaint filed on Aug. 19, 2016. Subsequently, Prof. Rangappa and three others again moved the High Court seeking quashing of the second FIR. The Court which heard Prof. Rangappa's plea, quashed the FIR registered on Nov. 29, 2019.

Reacting to HC's order quashing the FIR against him, Prof. Rangappa said that whatever he had done as the VC was in accordance with the decisions taken by the University Council. But a complaint was lodged against him for malafide reasons. The Court, taking note of the intention behind the filing of the FIR, has quashed it, he said welcoming the Court's observation.

Dasara Elephants Webinar Series

Mahout speaks about

Balarama's strength and valour

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (MTY&KS)- "One cannot find another elephant like Balarama. Though very strong, he is very soft natured. Because of his kindness, I had got the opportunity to guide him twice when he carried the Golden Howdah," said Balarama's Mahout Thimma, while speaking about the strength and valour of Balarama, at yesterday's webinar, 6th in the series of webinars titled 'Mysuru Dasara Aanegalu' organised by Forest Department, in association with Asian Elephant Support (AES).

The webinar series, organised as part of 'Wildlife Week' will go on till Oct. 2 everyday at 5.30 pm. Interested may log on to https://tinyurl.com/y3ml394a

Mahout

Y.K. Kiran Mumar
RFO

Continuing, Thimma said that Balarama had successfully carried the Golden Howdah during 'Jumboo Savari' 14 times and added that he has participated in Darasa for 21 times. He said that Balarama was selected to carry the Golden Howdah, following the untimely death of Drona. Drona was electrocuted while grazing.

Thimma said that during the period when Drona was carrying the Golden Howdah, Balarama was being trained to carry weight by placing sand bags on his back. After the death of Drona, Forest authorities were searching for another elephant to replace Drona and the officials zeroed in on Balarama and gave him the responsibility of carrying the howdah, he added.

Pointing out that though Balarama had a defective eye, the whooping 750-kg Golden Howdah was being tied securely on his back three hours before the commencement of 'Jumboo Savari,' Thimma said that by the time the Dasara procession culminated at Bannimantap, it used to take five to six hours and Balarama had the strength to carry the Golden Howdah and walk majestically without showing any signs of tiredness.

"Balarama is well-mannered and well-behaved. His behaviour was the same whether he is in city or forest. While most elephants chase away dogs or cattle that venture near them, Balarama has never harmed a cow, dog or kids. He has also participated in many operations undertaken to capture rouge elephants and tigers," Thimma said.

Thimma said that it is because of Balarama, he got the opportunity to make a name and thanked Balarama for it. Stating that he has always spoken and thought good of Balarama, Thimma said that he has small kids in his house, who play with Balarama.

Range Forest Officer (RFO) Y.K. Kiran Mumar of Anechowkur Range, who spoke about Mathigodu Elephant Camp and Abhimanyu, said that Mathigodu is a special elephant camp as captured wild elephants are tamed in this camp.

A total of 17 male elephants, four females, one makna (male elephant without tusks) and four calves are being taken care at Mathigodu Elephant Camp and added that Dasara elephants Abhimanyu, Balarama, Gopalaswamy and Varalakshmi are housed at Mathigodu Camp.

Pointing out that Abhimanyu, who was earlier stacking logs in order, is continuing his discipline, the RFO said that because of his confidence and bravery, Abhimanyu is the number one elephant in the country.

"He is having the leadership qualities and during an operation to capture rouge elephants, he used to stun rouge elephants and is a role model for other elephants," RFO Kiran Kumar said.

Mahouts also explained about the nutritional food being provided to elephants and also about the procedure of cooking food to the elephants.

We the readers of this book 'Namma Bhyrappanavaru' get to know what were the benefits derived by Dr. Bhyrappa's readers, who had suffered the same kind of poverty, hardship, personal deprivations and humiliations like the characters in the story. 'Bitthi' was his autobiography and too melancholic to begin with and yet that 'miserable creature' the protagonist (here Bhyrappa himself) surmounts all the hurdles and succeeds in life, succeeds in a very big way to become a legend in his own lifetime, now at 90. He is indeed a role-model to those who blame their situation of birth, family and FATE for their failures in life. After all as Leo Tolstoy says, "All happy families are alike, each unhappy family is unhappy in its own way." There could be persons whose situations in life were worse than Bhyrappa's.

Most of Dr. Bhyrappa's books, from what I understand from Dr. Vijaya Haran's book, is like a balm, a road-map for those unhappy families as to how to improve their lot and move on in life, like Bhyrappa himself did. These books gave hope and confidence to many readers who had identified themselves with some of the characters in the book. From that point of view Bhyrappa's books are not only good novels to read and enjoy but also a beacon light to those who are caught in the rough and stormy sea of life. Thank you sir. What Mahatma Gandhi has done to mankind as a messenger of peace, what Swami Vivekananda has done to the mankind as a propounder of spiritual life, you, through your novels, with a nuanced message, have done to many groping in the dark to find their way in life. Articles in this book speak eloquently about the benefits those readers derived after reading your books.

Writing about this book in the beginning at length Dr. Pradhan Gurudutt has written the criticism Dr. Bhyrappa faced from his detractors (who allegedly blocked Jnanpith Award, being given to Bhyrappa) as a Rightist, Reactionary and the most silly criticism from a Jnanpith Awardee that Dr. Bhyrappa is merely a debater, not a novelist. No one need to take these criticisms seriously for it is obvious a Left-liberal lobby in the field of textbook writing, history writing, art and literature has been operating since the days of Congress rule in this country. And then listen to what Somerset Maugham, a great writer, said of criticism: "I would rather be criticised than ignored."

And finally, sex in Dr. Bhyrappa's novels. This too has been discussed by puritans and Bhyrappa baiters. After all sex is a primordial urge, basic instinct, in all organisms and animals. And man is an animal. Socrates says, social animal. Therefore, when you write a story where humans play roles, how can you exclude sex. In some context or situation it has to manifest. Bhyrappa handles sex in his novels in a very subtle, circumspect manner but sometimes, I am told by a lady, rather explicitly (as if the skill came to him through 'Parakaya Pravesha' of Shankaracharya kind!). A mention is made about this aspect of his writing by Dr. H.V. Nagaraja Rao in this book. He had asked Bhyrappa why he had characterised the famous singer in his most admired and award winning book 'Mandra', translated to many languages, including Sanskrit, as a profligate, debaucherous person. "Thereby, you have made the musicians as suspects of immoral conduct in the eyes of your readers..." There was no mincing of words in Dr. Bhyrappa's answer. It was like a bullet! "I am not saying all artistes are immoral or characterless. But I know some artistes who are very famous being womanisers. You may not know the life of these famous artistes. But I know. In my description there was no wanton deprecation or exaggeration."

Some of my readers may think that as a local journalist of now 43 years and Dr. Bhyrappa being a famous litterateur of Mysore, I would have interviewed him. No. My friend in Mumbai had told me to avoid interviewing great writers and great politicians for they are highly presumptuous and sometimes even curt. Since then I bought my peace. Dr. Bhyrappa is a great writer.

Dr. Vijaya Haran, while reminding me about this article hinted that I also include my personal contact with Dr. Bhyrappa. Hence, this post script of sort.

I first heard of Dr. Bhyrappa as a great novelist in Pune where I saw his film 'Vamsha Vriksha' being exhibited as morning show in Nataraj theatre, spoken as owned by a Kannadiga by name Shinde, on Jangli Maharaj Road. I was mesmerised by the film. What a story and what a direction! Thereafter, it was my sister-in-law Rajani, who studied English literature from the Regional College of Education in Mysuru, who verbally introduced Dr. Bhyrappa and Dr. U.R. Ananthamurthy in superlative terms as if they were the ultimate teachers and writers in Kannada. I had not read a single book of both these writers as I was rather an Anglophile reading R.K. Narayan and other novelists writing in English. It was much later I read 'Aavarana' and other two books of Bhyrappa. However, I had not seen him personally at all, though I used to meet his eldest son occasionally in Kuvempunagar.

It was my friend Mohan, journalist (working for UNI, The Hindu, Financial Times and writing a column for Star of Mysore) who invited me for a dinner in his house in Saraswathipuram saying 'Bhyrappa is coming'. I went and found Mohan on appetiser and Bhyrappa was ensconced in an armed chair kept against the wall with a small table on the side. I was introduced and the response was casual, not warm. Mohan by nature was a talkative man and a singer too, fond of film songs. Bhyrappa spoke little and I had nothing to talk as much of it was done by Mohan! I parted soon after dinner. Later I had seen him from a distance while on his morning or evening walk and at close in a couple of functions where I was also a guest of honour looking like an apology in Dr. Bhyrappa's august presence. I learn, by nature he is a private person, soft spoken but a good public speaker. Now 90, may he live to be a centenarian and then cross the Vedic lifespan of 120 as I wish him many happy returns of the day.

Last Word: Moderation in praise or criticism is a virtue. The book may be a credible tribute to Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa without that 'ಏನೀ ಕೌತುಕ?'

Mysuru, Sept.29 (RKB&DM)- Slamming the State Government for shunting out Kannadiga IAS Officer B. Sharat barely a month after his appointment as Mysuru Deputy Commissioner, JD(S) MLA S.R. Mahesh claimed that the State Government has appointed Rohini Sindhuri as the new Mysuru DC at the behest of Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister.

Addressing a press meet at his office near Ramavilas Road here this morning, Mahesh wanted to know whether it is B.S. Yediyurappa (Chief Minister) who rules the State or the Andhra CM.

Contending that the premature transfer of Sharat, who is also a Dalit, is an insult to Kannadigas, Mahesh said that it is pertinent to note here that the new DC Rohini had moved the Court three times in the past against the State Government questioning her transfer.

Accusing Rohini of irregularities in the spending of Rs.175 crore sanctioned for Gommateshwara Mahamast-abhisheka at Shravanabelagola when she was Hassan DC earlier, Mahesh said he wanted to know the intention behind the posting of Rohini Sindhuri as Mysuru DC when Dasara is just 18 days away.

Continuing, Mahesh said that Sharat was transferred on the day when his digital signature, which is mandatory for signing of bills and orders was authorised by the Government, which has given rise to several questions.

Wondering when the digital signature of the new DC Rohini would get authorisation with Dasara just a few days away, Mahesh said the delay in digital signature was badly hurting rural people the most as many bills are awaiting DC's clearance.

Charging the BJP Government of running a transfer mafia, the MLA said the Government had indulged in indiscreet transfers at a time when the State is reeling under COVID-19 and a crumbling economy.

Wanting to know whether District Minister S.T. Somashekar who held a meeting with Sharat on Dasara preparations only on Sunday was in the know of Sharat's transfer, the MLA said that although transfers are normal, the timing of Sharat's transfer is suspicious and questionable.

He suggested Sharat to move the CAT seeking a stay on his abrupt and premature transfer.

City JD(S) President K.T. Cheluvegowda, former Mayor B.L. Bhyrappa, former Corporator K.V. Mallesh, Corporator Prema Shankaregowda, leaders Dwarakish, Shylendra and others were present during the press meet.

New DC visits Hill Temple

Rohini Sindhuri at Sri Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill this morning. Temple Chief Priest N. Shashishekar Dixit is also seen.

Highlighting her priorities for checking the spread of the deadly contagion, Rohini Sindhuri said that preference must be given for a wider testing involving a larger population as Rapid Antigen Test (RAT) is crucial for early detection of the virus.

Calling for full co-operation of the people, officials and other stake-holders for checking the spread of the virus, she said that people volunteering for tests is vital for preventing the pandemic and also bringing down the mortality rate.

Reiterating that holding Dasara amid the COVID-19 contagion holds a real challenge for her, she observed that public co-operation was very crucial for solving any issues that are haunting the district.

Rohini Sindhuri, who was until now serving as Commissioner for Religious and Charitable Endowments in Bengaluru, said that she has the experience of serving in Mysuru region as she was the DC of Hassan and ZP CEO in Mandya earlier.

Additional DC B.S. Manjunathaswamy, Assistant Commissioner Venkataraju and other officials were present.

New Delhi, Sept.29- The Election Commission of India (EC) today announced the schedule for by-polls to several vacant Assembly seats in different States.

According to the schedule, the by-poll for Sira Assembly Constituency in Tumakuru District and R.R. Nagar Constituency of Bengaluru city will take place on Nov.3. The counting of votes will take place on Nov.10 and the results will be announced the same day.

The by-poll for Sira Assembly segment was necessitated by the demise of JD(S) MLA B. Sathyanarayana a couple of months ago, while the R.R. Nagar by-poll has been necessitated by the resignation of Congress MLA Munirathna.

Corporator stages protest against DC Sharat's transfer

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (SPN&DM)- Hours after the Government transferred Mysuru DC B. Sharat barely a month after he was appointed to the post, Congress Corporator Lokesh Piya, along with his supporters, staged a demonstration in front of Mahatma Gandhi's bust, opposite the City Law Courts Complex here yesterday.

Condemning the premature and abrupt transfer, Lokesh Piya said that Sharat, who was serving as Kalaburagi DC, was posted as Mysuru DC only on Aug. 28 and his abrupt transfer just a month after he took charge, is nothing but ridiculous.

Maintaining that Sharat was doing a good job as the DC by taking necessary measures for containing the spread of the virus in the district, which has earned the dubious distinction of being only the second after Bengaluru in the number of COVID-19 positive cases, the Corporator alleged that the transfer of Sharat, who hailed from a Backward Community, comes as a rude shock for the people of the district, who were expecting much from him.

He urged the Government to withdraw the transfer order and continue Sharat as the DC.

Congress workers Smaran, Sadiq, Shekar, Satish, Nazir and others took part.

Outsourced workers demand pay parity

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (RK&SD)- Members of Mysuru Nagara Palike Khayam hagu Guttige Pourakarmikara Maha Sangha staged protest opposite Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) this morning demanding regularisation of outsourced and contractual workers and hike in salary on par with permanent employees.

Protesters alleged that outsourced workers, including vehicle drivers and cleaners, working in MCC are getting a meagre salary while their counterparts, who are permanent workers, are earning a decent amount with regular increments.

They demanded regularisation of their jobs and salaries on par with permanent Pourakarmikas and urged the Administration to provide job security to Pourakarmikas working on contractual basis. Protesters later submitted a memorandum to MCC Deputy Commissioner (Administration) Biligiri Rangaswamy.

Association President N. Mara, General Secretary Srinivas and others were present.

First degree holder from Jenu Kuruba tribe all set to crack KPSC exam

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (SPN&SD)- Naagi, the Jenu Kuruba tribal youth from H.D. Kote, who has the distinction of being the first degree holder in her community, is all set to crack KPSC exam this year.

Jenu Kuruba tribes are one of the vulnerable tribal groups in Karnataka. Living in the remote tribal hamlets of H.D. Kote taluk, education is still a remote possibility for these tribals due to lack of access to resources and other such support services.

Amidst these hurdles, Naagi has been able to earn a Bachelor's Degree and is now dreaming of getting a Government job.

Hailing from Gowdamachana Halli hamlet (also known as GM Halli Hadi), about 17 km from H.D. Kote, Naagi is the daughter of Chinnappa and holds Bachelor Degree in Arts with History, Economics and Political Science (HEP) as major subjects.

After completing her primary education in GM Halli Hadi Primary School and High School in Metikuppe Government High School, Naagi pursued PUC and graduation in H.D. Kote Government PU and Degree College. She has secured second class by scoring a total of 2,234 marks in Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree out of 3,800 marks.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, her father Chinnappa said, "From the last six months, the only bus, which used to ply in this area, has stopped due to COVID-19 pandemic. We are now dependent on goods auto to travel to H.D. Kote. My daughter has applied for a Government job and is working hard to clear the exam. We need somebody to provide proper guidance and support to fulfil her dreams."

Vice-President of Jana Sangrama Parishat Prasanna said, "Her determination is really admirable. GM Halli Hadi, which is her native, is a tribal hamlet bordering Nagarahole Tiger Reserve. In spite of all such difficulties, she has successfully completed her degree course. She is now aiming to take up KPSC exam and is very determined to get a Government job. What she now needs is right strategy, proper guidance and support. We are seeking help from the District Administration to guide Naagi."

Bemoaning that Hon. Doctoral Degrees have become market commodities, Prof. Padma Shekar said that she is thankful to DCP Dr. Prakash Gowda for having stopped a fake Doctoral degree conferment programme that was organised in city on Saturday.

Stating that she fears some of the narratives in the New Education Policy (NEP), she said that the implementation of the policy in toto means an end to notes giving practice and at the same time teachers will have to return to their student days for acquiring new thoughts and achieving greater mental capability.

Asserting that just getting a degree is not education, she said that real education lies in all-round personality growth and shedding light on the real values of life.

WORD OF THE DAY

Crabwise

Pronunciation: KRAB-wyze.
Meaning: Sideways: in a sidling or cautiously indirect manner.
Origin: There's no reason to be indirect when explaining the etymology of crabwise—we'll get right to the point. The meaning of the word is directly related to that sidling sea creature, the crab. If you have visited a beach near the sea, you have probably seen crabs scuttling along, often moving sideways. Though the behavior is surely above reproach to the crabs themselves, English speakers tend to be suspicious of what comes at them from the side, and the modern meanings of crabwise reflect this suspicion of the crab's lateral approach. The word crept into English in the early 19th century and has been sidling into our sentences ever since.
Example: "Covered in river scum, hair hanging down his forehead like oily kelp, he found his way to the hold, clambering on hands and knees, inching crabwise over rough-hewn wooden boards, and picking his way past intriguing crates of explorer supplies to find the out-of-view spot he'd settled on during his reconnaissance mission nine days before." — Laurie Gwen Shapiro

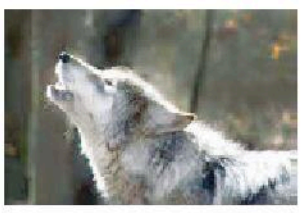
THE ODD WORD

Cacidrosis

Smelly sweat.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Cry wolf



Meaning: A person who lies or complains about something even though no real problems are present.
Origin: The origin is believed to be from Aesop, a Greek fabulist who is said to have lived around the time of 620 to 560 BCE. He wrote a number of different fables known collectively as Aesop's Fables. One of the stories credited to his name is called The Boy Who Cried Wolf. This story tells of a young boy who was given the responsibility of watching over some sheep for the night. The boy eventually grew bored with his assignment and thought it would be rather humorous if he pretended to be in danger, so he started to cry "wolf, wolf!" His plan worked, as the people nearby heard his cries for help and came rushing to lend their support. But they soon learned it was all a silly ruse. After this repeated a few more times, the people stopped listening to the boy. They no longer responded to him when they heard him yelling. Later, a real wolf showed up! Now the boy and the sheep were in actual danger, so he started to cry for help. But it was too late, because nobody would listen to him any longer.
The moral of The Boy Who Cried Wolf story is that when someone constantly lies, they lose the trust of others. Thus, the phrase 'crying wolf' is thought to have originated from this story.

The Cryptoquip is a substitution cipher in which one letter stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Single letters, short words and words using an apostrophe give you clues to locating vowels. Solution is by trial and error.

RCB edges out MI in a Super Over-thriller

Dubai, Sept. 29- Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) had to wait until the Super Over to defeat Mumbai Indians (MI) in their Indian Premier League (IPL) 2020 fixture, at the Dubai International Stadium yesterday.

In what was touted as a Virat Kohli Vs Rohit Sharma clash, fans had to wait until the last minute in this drama-filled encounter. Before the Super Over, RCB looked set to win the match, but a last ditch blitzkrieg by Ishan Kishan and Kieron Pollard tied the match.

MI won the toss initially and elected to bowl. Devdutt Padikkal once again notched a half-century, while AB de Villiers and Shivam Dube ensured a 201-run total for RCB. Meanwhile Washington Sundar proved to be crucial for Kohli's side.

After being sent into bat first, Padikkal and Aaron Finch gave RCB a good start, with the Australian also slamming 52 runs off 35 deliveries. Padikkal also hit seven boundaries, which consisted of five fours and two sixes. The Indian batsman registered 54 off 40 balls. Meanwhile, Finch hit seven fours and a six. The duo's partnership proved to be crucial to RCB, with Trent Boult grabbing their crucial wickets.

RCB captain Kohli continued with his poor run in the ongoing tournament, leaving for the pavilion early, after getting caught by Rohit Sharma off Rahul Chahar. Kohli could only muster three runs off 11 balls.

AB de Villiers and Shivam Dube added the finishing touches to RCB's total with 55 runs and 27 runs respectively. Both kept their partnership till the end, helping RCB finish at 201/3, setting a 202-run target.

Mumbai faced a shaky start, losing quick wickets of Rohit Sharma, Suryakumar Yadav and Quinton de Kock. The duo was removed by Washington Sundar, Isuru Udana and Yuzvendra Chahal respectively.

It was only after the arrival of Kishan, that MI's chase began. With Hardik Pandya getting dismissed by Adam Zampa after scoring 15 runs, Pollard came in to build a stable partnership with Kishan. Kishan slammed 99 runs off 58 deliveries, getting sent back to the pavilion in the second last ball of the 20th over, with Pollard hitting a six in the last delivery, to take the tie to Super Over. MI finished at 201/5.

MI batted first in the Super Over, and Navdeep Saini bowled brilliantly as he grabbed Pollard's wicket and restricted them to just 7 runs. RCB had to wait until the fourth delivery in the second Super Over, to finally get going, with de Villiers slamming a four against Jasprit Bumrah.

In the last delivery, Kohli slammed a four to seal the match for his team.

French Open: Nadal, Williams win Roland Garros openers

Paris, Sept. 29- Rafael Nadal began his pursuit of a record-tying 20th men's Grand Slam title with a straight-sets victory at the French Open while Serena Williams made a slow but successful start in her latest bid to equal Margaret Court's all-time mark.

Nadal, 34, needs one more Slam to match Roger Federer's record but has described the defence of his Roland Garros crown as the "most difficult ever" given the cold and damp conditions of a tournament delayed four months by the Coronavirus pandemic.

The second seed defeated Egor Gerasimov, the world number 83 from Belarus, 6-4, 6-4, 6-2 to launch his assault on a 13th French Open title, 15 years after his debut triumph.

The Spaniard is appearing for the first time in Paris without a clay title to his credit and skipped the recent US hard-court swing over COVID-19 concerns.

He smacked 32 winners to just 20 unforced errors to down Gerasimov, one of 31 men entered into his first French Open main draw.

Williams is chasing an elusive 24th Grand Slam title to draw level with Margaret Court's all-time haul, but clay is her least successful surface.

An error-prone beginning from the American star left world number 102 Kristie Ahn serving for the first set before the three-time Roland Garros champion prevailed 7-6 (7/2), 6-0.

Williams, playing at the French Open for the 18th time, dropped serve twice as Ahn moved 5-4 ahead in the opener in a rematch of their first-round encounter at Flushing Meadows.

But the sixth seed forced a tie-break that she sealed with an ace after a 74-minute slog before charging to an ultimately comfortable victory.

Williams, seeded sixth here, has not gone beyond the last 16 in Paris since her defeat to Garbine Muguruza in the 2016 final. Her last major came at the 2017 Australian Open while pregnant.
